

A Feast Day in ~1450 -1468's Burgundy – Tentative Outline of the Event

Friday afternoon/evening

Potluck and Refresher classes on:
What to expect and how to be a guest; how to recognize and interact with the staff.
Review topical gossip, literature, and important events of the times.

Saturday Morning

Early! ~8 am Light break-fast of bread, cold meats and cheese, watered wine or fruit juice and bread.

9 am Guests entertain themselves with games, dancing, idle (or strategic) chatter among the guests and servants and view the helmets/crests/arms of the competitors in the Pas d'Armes in the Feast Hall.

11 am Servants fed in messes in the Manor House/ Set up for the Feast will occur at the same time in the Feast Hall. Guests are allowed to socialize in the hall during set up if they so wish.

Saturday Afternoon

Feast- noon (~2 hours)
Order of Precedence procession into the room; seating by ticket type. Food and presentations / performances.

After feast 2 pm to ~5 pm
Servants clear tables of gear & reset for supper, Chairs /benches moved to inside of the U shape for after feast (backs to tables), move back for supper.

Games and outdoor activities to occupy guests while combatants get ready to participate in the Pas and after the Pas while combatants are cleaning up.

2:30 Guests gather for the Pas d'Armes. (2 hours)

Saturday Evening / Sunday evening

~5 pm Supper from the sideboard (1 to 1.5 hours)
Food and storytelling on the theme of the Pas.
~7 pm start clean-up
~8 pm sponsors pick up their items.
~9 pm event closes for day trip event / old style SCA after-revel for camping event with Saturday stay.

Sunday morning

Brunch of leftovers and general socializing
Finish cleaning site and go home